Daily Devotional Guide for the Christian Year

List Rental Information

Published four times a year, The Daily Devotional Guide for the Christian Year is a lectionary system that employs both the lectio continua lectionary, which means reading a given book of the Bible straight through from start to finish over a certain period of time, and the lectio selecta lectionary, which means that particular readings are chosen for particular days or a special reason, without the intention of reading all of a given book of the Bible.
