Editorial

FIRST THINGS is America's premier journal of religion and public life. It begins with the premise that to understand American society—and where it is headed—it is necessary to understand its religious life and values. FIRST THINGS' broad coverage of religious and cultural issues encompasses politics, economics, ethics, education, science, and literature and the arts. Though concerned with issues of great seriousness, FIRST THINGS is lively, readable, and entertaining.

FIRST THINGS is for Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Muslims, and more. We make a point of being ecumenical and interreligious, engaging all the questions pertinent to “religion, culture, and public life.”

History

The founding editor in chief of FIRST THINGS was Richard John Neuhaus, theologian, celebrated public intellectual, and author of many books, including the groundbreaking The Naked Public Square. Father Neuhaus died in January 2009 leaving a legacy of reinvigorated religious debate in our public life.

Features
