

Praise for IMAGE

For the past twenty years IMAGE has been the pre-eminent meeting place for writing on faith and the imagination....Inclusive but discerning, spiritually alert but never doctrinaire, IMAGE has helped keep American literature connected to one of its deepest sources of inspiration.

—Dana Gioia

Past Chair of the National Endowment for the Arts

Over the past dozen years, IMAGE has shaped and reshaped my theology and my aesthetic sensibility. It is one of the most important staples of my reading life.

—Lauren Winner

author of Girl Meets God

With luminous art by some of today's best creators, IMAGE has sewn a seam between earth and heaven, a seam for which we must give ardent thanks to God.

—Luci Shaw

author of Breath for the Bones

IMAGE is the one journal on the arts edited with the understanding that poetry and prayer proceed from the same mysterious and creative source. Every issue illumines these depths with different shafts of light. In this respect it has no competition in the literary marketplace.

—Kenneth L. Woodward

longtime Religion Editor of Newsweek

Effective 2015

“The most meaningful literary journal being published today.”

—Bret Lott

Author of Jewel

IMAGE is a quarterly literary and arts journal which stands at the crossroads of faith and imagination. It is unique among literary publications not only for its focus on religion and art, but for its high production values. IMAGE's impact is directly related both to its content and to its outstanding graphic design. Readers see text printed on acid-free paper and visual art reproduced through the four-color process. E-subscriptions to IMAGE are now available through Zinio.

IMAGE features fiction, poetry, memoir, and interviews, as well as essays on painting, sculpture, architecture, music, film, and theater.

Since 1989, IMAGE has been at the forefront of the growing movement of those who embrace the spiritual dimensions of art. Contact our advertising representatives for most current circulation numbers.
